LOUISVILLE, KY.

TUESDAY MORNING.—MARCH 28, 1861.

For State Treasurer.

We are authorized to announce JAMES R.
BARRICK, of Barron county for State Treasurer.

THE MYSTERIOUS MURDER AT JACKSON.—

All newspaper readers remember the accounts, published at the time, relative to the atrocious and mysterious murder of young Miller, in the Union Bank, at Jackson, Tenn., and the robbing of the bank, about two years ago.

A Jackson paper, a few days since, intimated a prominent and well known citizen of that place was suspected of being the author of this dreadful crime, and had fled from that place. The Banner, of Nashville, has learned something further in regard to the matter, and its issue of Sunday says: "We learn verbally that this suspected person is Mr. John S.

Miller, a prominent merchant of Jackson, a man of high standing, and uncle of the unfortunate victim. The evidence against him was entirely circumstantial, but seems to have been strong enough to induce him to seek safety in flight. Among other things it is known, as we are informed, that previous to the murder his affairs were very much embarrassed, and he appeared greatly harassed on account of the fact. Subsequently to the murder he paid off his liabilities, and went again swimming."

EXTENSIVE SEIZURE OF COUNTERFEIT

NOTES AND PLATES.—Detective Keesey, of Washington city, has seized, and retains, by order of the Court, bogus and counterfeit notes on twenty-seven banks, amounting to $200,000, and also plates and dies for their manufacture. The larger packages contain the following: $30,000 counterfeit on the Bank of Augusta, Maine; $60,000 unsigned counterfeit on the State Bank of Ohio; $30,000 bogus notes on the Columbia

Bank of Washington; $30,000 counterfeit on the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Virginia; $8,000 of seven denominations, all counterfeit of the Camden Bank, New Jersey, and four plates on the same bank.

There are also signs of the denominations of ten cents, one dollar, and two dollars and a half gold pieces.

At Schwind's Exchange the caadi dates for City Attorney had a camp-meeting last night, with an abundance of speakers.

A German woman named Rebns, a few years ago escaped from the Insane Asylum in Indianapolis, and wandered off to Buffalo. In the meantime her husband married again, but the first wife having recovered, a few days ago returned to her old home near Fort Wayne.

MEETING TO-NIGHT.—There will be a public meeting, and speaking by the candidates for City Attorney, at John Bull's Union Hotel, on the Point, near Preston street.

About midnight last night, Frank Dennis and some others, undertook to take some liberates with a woman living in Rig alley, between Fourth and Fifth streets, and her husband, in attempting to defend her, was struck a terrible blow under the eye, cutting the lower lid. Officers Seay and Maritz started down to arrest the ruffians.

IN LINCOLN.—Among the recent additions to the population of the Frankfort Penitentary, are the following from Covington:

Wm. Chester, counterfeiting, two years;

Mary Reed, do, one year; Hiram Alexander, malicious stabbing, two and one-half years;

Paddy Nolan, burglary, and Wm. Miller, felony, one year each.

Miles J. Bradley, who was concerned in the Boone County, Ind., Bank swindle, has been sentenced at St. Louis to the Missouri Penitentiary for five years, for altering spurious currency. When he has served out his term of punishment in Missouri, should he live so long, there will be a change of a similar character for him to answer for to authorities in Indiana.

Bradley is a venerable sinner, being now in his sixty-fifth year. When his term of penal service expires he will be at the age of three score and ten years—the general limit of earthly probation.

HOMICIDE.—We regret to chronicle a distrressing homicide that occurred on Tuesday night, about eight o'clock, at the Six-Mile House, on the Bardstown Turnpike.

George Hikes, a son of Andy Hikes, Esq., of this county, was shot, and almost instantly expired, by Wesley Owens, the keeper of the house. We understand that the parties had an alteration, Hikes being somewhat intoxicated, and that Hikes menacing Owens with a pistol, was shot through the body with a gun, hastily caught up. Owens, sometimes since, killed John Gatto and Bill "Alligator," in self defense. He is said to be a cripple. The deceased was about 27 years of age, and leaves a wife.

The arrival of Gen. Buckley at Covington is announced, as well as the dissolution of his presence and the purpose to

"move him."

On Saturday last two strange flags were flying in New York harbor—the Confederate States colors.

A tannery belonging to Nicholas

Price, valued at $2,000, was burned at West

Union, Ind., yesterday morning.

As the tannery of Gen. Buckley at Covington is announced, as well as the dissolu-

"move him."

We observe that the old telegraph pole on Tow-head Island has fallen. It had long been a sort of landmark, and the island looks desolate without its gazing and gill shining in the sunlight.

To establish a free library, do a good deed and get $1,000 at 305 Jefferson street.

A couple of fellows had an exciting battle on Main, between Fifth and Sixth streets, yesterday. One got soundly thrashed, but his arrests were made. He looked like a pitched battle, but whether the best man won't know. Certainly the strong one did.

The hat that Douglas held, can't be seen at 305 Jefferson street, but the office will be kept open every night this week to enable persons to get tickets who find it inconvenient to go there during the day.

When you come out of Pargy's step in next door, $100. Only $2 for a ticket.

A German girl was burned to death while assisting in burning brush, near Corydon, Indiana, on Tuesday morning.

COOT.—Since the thunder storm the atmosphere has been quite frigid as compared with the past fortnight, and of evenings the discarded overcoats flourish prettily extensively. One of these cool March-nights appears as though old Bobes was trying very hard to linger in the lap of spring, and in the dark, too.

As Mr. Beck is going to engage in another business, we would say that any one in need of any of his articles would do well to attend the sale this morning.

Mr. Beck's

Amusement.

THEATRE.—We were gratified to witness the appropriate response to the announcement of Mr. Dickson's benefit last evening at the Gallatin, Tenn., recently was named

W. C. Morris.

$2.00. 1000 prizes in money, and tickets limited to 5,000.
